LOCALITY

Špitálska Street and the surroundings of the Medical Garden are among the most desirable locations in the wider center of Bratislava. This is an attractive city address with excellent accessibility to the historical center, as well as to all major transport hubs, with public transport being directly nearby. The location offers complete civic amenities - shops, services, schools, medical facilities, restaurants and cafes are within walking distance. A great benefit is the Medical Garden, which provides a pleasant green space for relaxation, walks or sports right in the city center. The combination of city life with the possibility of relaxing in the countryside makes this location an ideal place for living and investing. The surroundings of Špitálska Street are lively, but at the same time practical and convenient for everyday life.
